At 8 o'clock mass last Sunday over 100 members of the Young Ladies So-dality of the Children of Mary re-ceived holy communion in a body In the evening at 7.30 o'clock a large class of young members were received. The reception ceremony was impres-tive and beautiful. By Rev. Bishop Scanlan, spiritual director of the soofficiated, assisted by Rev. W.

Father Ryan preached an eloquen sermon. It is certain the good advice superfied to the young ladies will help them overcome many temptations which may assail them in their journey through life. The music in morn-ing and evening sermons was beauti-ful. Miss Margaret Connelly was soloist in the morning and Miss Clara Farek soloist in the evening.

"GLORIUS NEWS."

(From the Providence Visitor.)
The aged are sometimes said to court death, or, at least, not greatly to fear its coming. The young, however, usually in love with life, do not like to think of death, and if its erns them individually. There are xceptions, of course. One of the nost striking instances, not merely of idifference to death, but of real joyousness at its coming, is found in the pages of Mr. Shead-Cox's fascinating blography of Cardinal Vaughan. The Cardinal's sister—a nun—at the agof 19 wrote to an uncle to give him

"I am astonished that I have enough patience to explain all this te you (why she had delayed writing) when I have such 'glorious news' to tell you—viz, that I may hope in a very short time, in a few days perhaps, to see by Celestial Spouse in heaven, and to gaze forever on that Face of beauty of which ne words can tell. I am writing to you from my bed, ill in the infirmary. The doctor came to see me last Saturday and said that my revocery was an impossibili-ty, and that I might at any time re-ceive Extreme Unction."

TENDERNESS TO THE OLD.

Nothing is more beautiful or Christ like in the character of the young than a kind and gentle regard for the old. They whose falling steps are slowly descending the sunless slope of vitations for the marriage of his age have but one consolation as the daughter, Mary Ethelyu, to Lewis William Sowies for Wednesday evening, tenderness and consideration of those September 14, at 8:20 o'clock, in St. whose lives the beauties of the morning are breaking.

Age is a season of physical in-firmity, of mental retrospection, of shattered dreams and earthly disappointments. No more for the old i there a giamor in the rolling stars, n more a freshness in the spring, no more a triumph in the years. The thousand melodies of the present sound far off to their aged cars and its charms are blurred in the dimmed yes whose tears fall on the graves of

SAND-SOLED SHOES,

Appreciating the rapidity with which leather soles wear out, an inventor now comes forward with a "rock-bottom" shoe, which he declares to be practically indestructible. His invention consists of a cement for coating the under side of the usual leather sole with fine quartz sand, His process is said to leave the sole as flexible ar ordinary leather, and
